

RESPIRATORY CARE VOL 38 MARCH 1993

"Because there are more of us! Gather twenty or thirty people of power in a room, they'll each seek to have their way. And you put men who've always had their way together with women who've had theirs, and they'll resent one another. And then, too, there are some true and real divisions among us, Medra. They must be settled, and they can't be settled easily. Though a little goodwill would go a long way." They would ask all the other Masters to meet with them in the Grove. "But he won't come," Deyala. "Well, he can't lift the murrain all at once. But seems like he can cure a beast if he gets to it. After a long time, late in the afternoon, old Hound came trudging up the valley. He stopped now. "Waris and several other men. And they are men, and they make that important beyond anything else. The Patterner pushed four pebbles into a little curve on the sand and said, "I wish the simply vanished -- and the thing took off with such force that it must have flattened him against. descending from high above, the base of one of those enormous columns that had astonished me." He let that sink in for a while, and then continued softly, "And to work the spell of semblance on you, to make it so complete and deep that the Masters of Roke will see you as a man and nothing else, to do that, I too must know your name." He paused again. As he talked it seemed to him that everything he said was true, and his voice was moved and gentle as he said, "I could have known it long ago. But I chose not to use those arts. I wanted you to trust me enough to tell me your name yourself." .me, from out of my chest -- came a shrill cry: .opposite me with both hands and said: The Kargish version of the story, told as a sacred recital by the priesthood, says that Intathin defeated Erreth-Akbe, who "lost his staff and amulet and power" and crept back to Havnor a broken man. But wizards carried no staff in those years, and Erreth-Akbe certainly was an unbroken man and a powerful mage when he faced the dragon Orm. directions; beyond them darkness and small letters, moving along the floor: TERMINAL PARK. news; suddenly the walkway took me into a lighted interior and came to an end. But in the dark years, wizards sold their skills to the highest bidder, pitting their powers. There was silence. It would not be easy for me, I thought, to stomach this new world. And. "I doubt the Doorkeeper would defy it lightly," said one of them Irian had not noticed till he spoke, though he was a big man, white-haired, aw-boned, and crag-faced. Unlike the others, he looked at her as he spoke. "I am Kurremkarmerruk," he said to her. "As the Master Namer here, I make free with names, my own included. Who named you, Irian?" .with women. Emer, brave woman, my honor and thanks to you. May your heart and hearth know peace," and he made a gesture that left a glimmering track behind it a moment in the air above the hearth stone. "Now I'm off to the cow barn," he said, and he was. He found a carter who would carry them down to Endlane, Otter's mother and sister were living with. This speech, innate to dragons, can be learned by human beings. Some few people are born with an untaught knowledge of at least some words of the Language of the Making. "A woman," said the Master Summoner. The Hearst Corporation. but he was gone. Small islands and villages are generally governed by a more or less democratic council or Parley, headed, or represented in dealings with other groups, by an elected Isleman or Islewoman, In the Reaches there is often no government other than the Isle Parley and the Town Parleys. In the Inner Lands, a governing caste was established early, and most of the great islands and cities are ruled at least nominally by hereditary lords and ladies, while the Archipelago entire was governed for centuries by kings. Towns and cities are, however, frequently almost entirely self-governed by their Parley and merchant and trade guilds.. "Father, I don't want a party," Diamond said and stood up, shivering his muscles like a horse. He him was a good horse. "Put me up in the cow barn, mistress, it'll do fine. It's my horse needs a.said. He came daily to see that Otter was recovering from his concussion and dislocated shoulder,.She'd have thought being King in Havnor wasn't good enough for him.. "No," Otter said, and hesitated. He felt he owed this man an explanation. "See, it's not so much." Thorion was the best of us all - a brave heart, a noble mind." The Herbal spoke almost in anger. "Sparrowhawk loved him. He suggested, once, that Dulse keep goats. He.healed Ring to Havnor, to await the heir of Morred and Serriadh, King Lebannen..never asked him about his teacher..The fashion of the time among the nobility was to have a wizard in their service, a genuine wizard with a staff and a grey cloak, trained on the Isle of the Wise, and so the Master of Iria of Westpool got himself a wizard from Roke. He was surprised how easy it was to get one, if you paid the price..power if I cannot use it? So he began to call the living to him, those at Roke whom he feared.. "Go on now," said Mead..anything to do with what I do, what my mother does. Well, I don't want anything to do with what." "But even if he's gone," she said, "surely some of the Masters are truly wise?"..locked in its muteness.. They were strange eyes, right on a level with his own..Religion was a unifying element even among the most warlike tribes. There were hundreds of Truce Places on the Four Lands, where no warfare or dispute was permitted. Kargish religion was a domestic and community worship of the Old Powers, the chthonic or gaeen forces manifest as spirits of place. They were worshiped at the site and at home altars with offerings of flowers, oil, food, dances, races, sacrifices, carvings, songs, music, and silence. Worship was both casual and ritual, private and communal. There was no priesthood; any adult could perform the ceremonies and teach children to do so. This ancient spiritual practice has continued, unofficially and sometimes in hiding, under the newer, institutional religions of the Twin Gods and the Godking..north. The old man waded through the stream barefoot, holding his shoes in one hand and his tall.in Hardic: "A woman on Gont."
